Mold and Sewage Remediation Certification Course with Hands-on Section

Learn about the principles, methods, procedures and tools for structural and content remediation. The course addresses guidelines and industry standards, containment types and set-ups, pressure differentials, demolition and cleaning procedures, microbiology, personal protection equipment and sampling methods. It provides the training to conduct remediation projects, includes a hands-on section and concludes with the exam for IICRC certification.

The AMRT class also qualifies for IICRC continuous education credits (CEC) - and lunch is included.

Prerequisites: IICRC's Water Damage Restoration Technician (WRT) class with exam prior to attending the AMRT course.
